

Kim,

The Diversity Committee has been doing two things since our last meeting. First, Dr. Hill has been in communication with our educational psychology interns in the Learning Center regarding interviewing student focus groups so that we may get greater insight into some of the comments made on our survey. Lester and I have been communicating with students and parents about getting two of each to become members of the committee. Thanks,

Fitz