So You Want to be a College Student-Athlete?

Now is the time to learn about NCAA initial-eligibility requirements for Division I and II colleges!

You will benefit from this workshop if you are a

High school student-athlete
A parent of a high school student-athlete
Coach or Athletic Director
Guidance Counselor

Learn more about . . .

NCAA Core Courses
What are they?
How many should be taken while in high school?

Test Scores
What ACT and SAT scores are required by the NCAA?
Should the test be taken more than once?

Core Grade Point Average
How do I calculate it?
What are some strategies for improvement?

NCAA Initial-Eligibility Clearinghouse
What is it?
When and how do students register?

Processes and Timing
When to apply for admission to college?
How will test scores affect an “official visit” to a college?

Strategies and Perspectives
How to improve core GPA and test scores?
What it’s really like to be a college student-athlete?

6 – 8 p.m., Sunday, November 13, 2005
Ballroom, Bone Student Center, Illinois State University
Questions? Call (309) 438-2677
Parking validation available for the Bone Student Center Visitor Parking Lot upon check-in

Event sponsored by
Illinois State University
Office of Admissions
Illinois State University
Student Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC)